

Employment Application

At Will Employment

All applicants must complete the General Employment Application Forms. Additional forms may be attached seeking information from those applying for specific positions related to church, school or ministerial staff.

First Baptist School of Corpus Christi is a religious organization which is specifically exempt from title VII or The Civil Rights Act of 1964 with regard to the prohibition of religious discrimination.

Therefore, First Baptist School of Corpus Christi may prefer or require certain school and ministerial employees to affirm the doctrine contained in the Baptist Faith and Message. For our ministers and faith related employees we adhere to standards and behavior, both on and off the job, where those standards are clearly an aspect of the church's religious doctrines and beliefs.

For other job classification we are an equal opportunity employer.
